

Graduate School Funding

Students Should Expect Financial Support to Complete a PhD

Main Funding Options

Assistantships

Fellowships

Research Assistant

Financial support provided by project PI to perform research related to the student's dissertation

Teaching Assistant

Financial support provided by academic program to assist with teaching a course

Project Assistant

Financial support from project PI to perform research NOT related to the student's dissertation or from academic program support other program needs

Assistantships
generally include:

- tuition waiver
- access to health insurance

Fellowships

Usually awarded directly to student based on merit and research readiness

Prestigious

Fellowships

Usually include enough support to cover tuition, living expenses and health insurance

Fellowships Related to Non-proliferation R&D

Nuclear Non-proliferation and International Safeguards (NNIS)

National Science Foundation
Graduate Research Fellowship

University Nuclear Leadership Program (UNLP)

GEM Fellowship

